

CHURCH PROFILE

PEAKLAND BAPTIST CHURCH is a theologically progressive congregation that is inclusive beyond the Baptist denominational identity. It is primarily comprised of older, educated career professionals providing a solid financial base. Our congregation offers no children/youth programs at this time and is actively debating what direction the church should take in the future in this area. We have a traditional service. The new pastor will be expected to provide effective leadership in setting the church's direction. The church is located within the city of Lynchburg.
