THE PRELUDE

Please consider the prelude as an invitation to quietly, reverently prepare yourself for worship.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP (from Matthew 5:3-11) (remain seated)

Dr. Jackie Asbury

All: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

If you desire membership in this congregation, you are invited to present yourself at this time. If you prefer not to present yourself, you may speak to the minister after the service to effect membership. As an open membership church, we honor your previous baptism in any other Christian community. If you have not made a profession of faith, we invite you to do so and receive Christian baptism. Church members are invited to use this time to renew their covenantal relationship with God and their commitment to Christian service.

Offertory Emphasis

Access to food is an issue of justice. Access to healthcare is an issue of justice. Access to affordable housing is an issue of justice. Access to education is an issue of justice. Access to lawyers and fairness of law is an issue of justice. During the month of February, we grieve the injustices of our past, and confess our sins of injustice. We celebrate the organizations with which we partner who are at work in this community and in the wider world to offer up justice in all these ways. We give thanks to God for our ability to be part of the good work of offering justice.

Please join me in prayer:

Lord, we confess that we have been part of unjust systems; that we, ourselves, have been unjust. Forgive us for these sins. We thank you for the ways we can be part of the work of justice around the world. Help us to keep our hearts open for chances to work for justice. Amen.
