THE GREETING

The Rev. Dr. Martha D. Kearse

To our Guests, Members, and Friends: In the pew rack you will find a small brochure to give us the opportunity to get to know you and serve you better. Fill in where appropriate, and place it in the collection plate. Welcome and thank you!

THE PRELUDE

Please consider the prelude as an invitation to quietly, reverently prepare yourself for worship.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP (from Matthew 5:3-11) (remain seated)

Mr. Parks Snead

All: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Offertory Emphasis

As we have been considering blessing and justice, love and mercy, today we come to this moment offering thanks for all those in our community who are working for justice in this city. For those working to bring people the blessing of food, we give thanks. For those working to bring people the blessing of healthcare, we give thanks. For those working to bring people the blessing of affordable housing, of justice in law, of good employment and fair wages, we give thanks. For those who share peace with their neighbors, we give thanks. We give today in honor of the many blessings we are allowed to share with the world.

Please join me in prayer:

Lord, we thank you for all the ways you give us good work to do. We thank you for each one here, who picks up his piece or her piece of your good work every day and does it with a kind heart. We thank you for the ways this community of faith helps us to do this work. Amen.
