THE PRELUDE

Please consider the prelude as an invitation to quietly, reverently prepare yourself for worship.

THE CALL TO WORSHIP from Psalm 31

The Rev. Dr. Martha D. Kearse

Leader: In you, O Lord, do I take refuge;

People: in your righteousness deliver me!

Leader: Be a rock of refuge for me,

People: a strong fortress to save me!

Leader: For you are my rock and my fortress;

People: for your name's sake you lead me and guide me.

Leader: Blessed be the Lord, for God has shown steadfast love to me.

ALL: Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who wait for the Lord!

THE INVOCATION AND GLORIA PATRI

The Rev. Dr. Martha D. Kearse & The Community

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

CONCERNS AND CELEBRATIONS OF COMMUNITY, THE MORNING PRAYER, AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

The Rev. Dr. Martha D. Kearse

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BENEDICTION

The Rev. Dr. Martha D. Kearse

Stewardship Emphasis:

This Thanksgiving, we will celebrate the many things we have been given by sharing some of them with the Fairview Community Center and the programs it supports. We give today in gratitude for the work of the Community Center and for those who care for children and their families daily to help educate and support hard-working families in that neighborhood.

Prayer:

Lord, we are grateful for those who work each day with children and their families at the Fairview Community Center. We are grateful for their calling and their hard work, as well as for the families who participate with them in creating beautiful community. Thank you for our ability to support them in this work. Amen.
